

Jumpin' Rockets

The “Jumpin' Rockets” bring the 50s feeling into today back with covers of “Elvis Presley”, via “Johnny Kid and the Pirates” to “Imelda May”, which breaks through the typical cover types and add your own touch, and with your own (still unknown) rockabilly original compositions Dance floor to shake. They combine the influences of the forefathers of the

Rock'n Rolls with catchy tunes and the well-known vintage sound 50s, which guarantees an absolute catchy tune

According to the motto: What sounds cool is cool!

Groovy and rousing rhythm parts paired with a gripping one Guitar sound - catapults everyone into the new dimension of “Rockabilly.”

The newly acquired front woman “Sandy Lee” inspires with her gentle, but also rough tones and embodies with her curves, concentrated Female power at the microphone.

An absolute “must see” for every rock'n roll fan unforgettable evening with the finest rockabilly sounds “from outta Space”!

The “Jumpin' Rockets” released their first album in November 2021

“Hot Stuff From Rocketsilo 51” with former frontman “Kai

Thurau”, but the second album is already in the pipeline and will be released in released in just a few months!

Stay tuned folks and friends....
